BEHRING SEA TREATY

It is Discussed by the Senate in Secret Session.

A VOTE EXPECTED NEXT WEEK.

It is Believed That the Treaty Will Be Ratified—All the Employees of the Senate Excluded from the Executive Session.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The senate of the United States again devoted itself to the Behring sea arbitration treaty yesterday, but did not take action on it. From the character of the discussion and the disposition shown by the senators who took part in it, there is every reason to believe that the debate has about reached its conclusion and that a vote will be taken early next week with the ratification of the treaty as a result. This is the situation in a nutshell.

Following out its plan of Thursday in its fruitless attempt to prevent the proceedings in executive session from being made public, the senate yesterday again cast suspicion on the venerable Captain Bassett, Executive Clerk Young and other trustworthy employees who have never been known to or even suspected of betraying an executive secret, by excluding all employees with the exception of General McCook, the secretary of the senate and Mr. Vallantyne, the sergeant-at-arms, from the chamber during the secret session. There was much indignation expressed in the Capitol at the exclusion, and it is certain that the employees themselves, particularly Captain Bassett, who has served continuously for sixty-three years in the service of the senate, feel keenly the stigma of suspicion cast upon them, although none of them have expressed themselves on the subject.

Immediately after the routine business of the morning had been finished in the senate, at 12:30 o'clock, went into secret session on motion of Mr. Sherman, and when the employees were excluded and the doors closed the arbitration treaty was taken up.

Mr. Felton, of California, made a vigorous onslaught on the treaty. To ratify, he said, would be a virtual surrender of our rights acquired from Russia under the Alaska purchase treaty of 1867. Ratification, he contended, would be manifest disrespect towards Russia, and he believed that the friendly feelings existing between that country and the United States would be strained if ratifications were exchanged.

Mr. Felton was supported by several senators from the far west, but the contingent was very small and did not have much weight. The element that proved so strong Thursday—that which held that the modus vivendi should be renewed before the treaty was ratified—again came to the front. Senators Frye, Butler, Teller, Chandler and others sustaining the position of this faction. This element was strongest during Thursday's debate, but it showed signs of falling off in the discussion yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Sherman counseled a conservative course and made a strong argument in favor of a ratification of the treaty without restriction. He contended that England would never agree to exchange ratification under a threat of refusal to allow the ratification to become effective until the modus vivendi was renewed. He pointed out to the senate the advantage that would be derived by the United States if ratification were agreed to peacefully and without restriction. He thought it for the best interests of this country that the senate should do nothing unfriendly, in order that England would be compelled to take the initiative in the matter, thus throwing the responsibility on that government for any trouble that might ensue.

Several senators made the contention that the senate should support the president by passing a resolution strengthening him in his position, and quite a formidable contingent developed in support of this view. Mr. Sherman, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Gray combatted it, however, contending that the president did not need advice; that he knew what was best to do, and that the passage of such a resolution would appear like a threat to Great Britain and thus place the United States in the position of having made the first hostile movement.

When the senate concluded the discussion after it had been behind closed doors for nearly two and half hours, it had taken no action on the treaty or on any of the propositions relating to it, but there was a general feeling that it had been fully discussed, and that next week a vote on the main question could be taken. There was a general belief that the treaty would be ratified then without restriction.

BEHRING SEA CONTROVERSY.

Officials Busy Preparing Our Case for the Arbitrators.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The officials at the state department charged with the duty of preparing the case of the United States for the arbitrators on the Behring sea controversy are busily engaged these days. General J. W. Foster is in almost constant conference with Mr. Frank Partridge, the solicitor of the department, and Mr. J. Stanley Brown, who visited the seal islands last year as special agent of the government, and Mr. Ivan Petroff, who was special agent in Alaska, have joined Professors Mendenhall and Merriam, the Behring sea commissioners, in aiding General Foster in preparing and arranging the data upon which this government will present and rest its case. This will include the formal report of Professors Mendenhall and Merriam.

Died After an Eight Weeks' Fast.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 26.—Basil Tracey, of Waynetown, died yesterday at the advanced age of ninety years. He had been able to take absolutely no nourishment for the last eight weeks, and literally fasted for that period. He leaves, besides a vast amount of personal property, about 2,000 acres of land. His heirs are already fighting over, having begun suits a year ago when the old gentleman attempted to distribute it.

which is not yet fully completed, and a vast deal of evidence and information collected by them and Messrs. Brown and Petroff.

The cabinet meeting yesterday was not exciting, hardly interesting in a news sense. There was nothing to do in the Behring sea matter, and it was discussed only informally. There was no truth in the rumor, which found circulation during the afternoon, that Lord Salisbury had replied to the president's note of the 22d, the last in the correspondence recently published. Likewise, a cabinet officer stated there was no truth in the statement published in the New York Times to the effect that the Russian minister had notified the president that his government would increase the Russian fleet in Behring sea.

MAD DOG EXCITEMENT.

Two People Badly Bitten at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 26.—The northeastern part of the city is greatly excited over the biting of Annie White and Herman Schwear Thursday night by a rabid dog. The animal was frothing at the mouth and Miss White attempted to drive him from the yard, when he attacked her and lacerated her right hand badly. It then jumped over the fence and ran down the street. Mr. Schwear was returning home from his work and met the dog on the sidewalk. The animal leaped upon him and closed his teeth upon his right hand, piercing it through the palm.

Several other persons were attacked, and a woman had her clothing torn in shreds by the vicious animal yesterday. Schwear's wound proved very painful and his friends are very uneasy about him. His arm is swollen to the shoulder and his hand is badly discolored. He is trying a madstone to the wound. Miss White is not suffering as much pain as Schwear, but will also try the stone. The dog was killed yesterday.

Burial Postponed.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 26.—Wednesday morning the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Farrow was found dead in bed. The funeral services were stopped in a very sensational manner yesterday. Coroner Austin walked in and forbade the removal of the body until an investigation is made of charges preferred by the child's mother against her husband. She claims that he strangled the child to death. There has been ill-feeling between the pair for some time, and Farrow claims that Joe Lyman is the father of the child. It is currently reported that he had threatened to kill the infant to get even with her.

Looks Like a Murder.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 26.—Thursday night James B. Swain was arrested for drunkenness, but it soon developed that something more serious ailed him. He grew rapidly worse during the night and at 8 o'clock yesterday morning died. An examination showed that he had been struck on the head with a blunt instrument, and the detectives have learned that he had domestic troubles and that a male companion of his wife had some trouble with him. There is evidence that the men met and had a conflict. Swain was a prosperous farrier of West Falls, about forty miles from here.

Strikers' Last Warning.

MEMPHIS, March 26.—The strike of the yard switchmen of the Memphis and Charleston railroad yesterday was taken up by the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association, and the order has been given that no freight cars of the Memphis and Charleston road are to be handled by other railroad companies. This action was determined upon Wednesday night, soon after the strike was begun. No attempt has yet been made to fill the places of the strikers, but it is stated that if the strikers do not soon return to work, other men will be secured.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 26.—Basil Tracey, of Waynetown, died yesterday at the advanced age of ninety years. He had been able to take absolutely no nourishment for the last eight weeks, and literally fasted for that period. He leaves, besides a vast amount of personal property, about 2,000 acres of land. His heirs are already fighting over, having begun suits a year ago when the old gentleman attempted to distribute it.

Wave of Reform.

VALPARAISO, March 26.—Dr. Tracy, a temperance evangelist, is conducting a series of meetings here. Last night 800 people were turned away from the opera house, unable to gain admittance. A wave of reform is sweeping over the city. Next Sunday evening the pastors of the churches will discuss the issues involved in the next city election. The saloon interests are thoroughly alarmed at the aggressive attitude of the better element.

Prominent Man Believed Murdered.

PAINESVILLE, O., March 26.—Yesterday the body of C. H. Graham, a prominent citizen of Richmond, O., was found in the river at Fairport with all evidence that murder had been committed, the head being horribly mutilated.

He was a candidate for mayor at the coming election.

No Gas North of the Wabash.

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 26.—Operations at the Porter prospecting well have been abandoned. The well caved in after the drill had reached a depth of 1,800 feet, burying the tools in the bottom. The contractor, who is an experienced well-driller, says there is no gas north of the Wabash.

Died of Exhaustion.

PLAINFIELD, Ind., March 26.—Thomas Worth, a highly-honored citizen, died at the home of his son in this place last evening. He was aged eighty-five years. Death was caused by exhaustion.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Business Report.

CONFIDENCE STILL PREVAILS.

Prices of Commodities Lower Than One Year Ago—A Better Tone to the Iron Market—Our Foreign Relations Have a Slight Effect on the Money Market. Business Failures.

NEW YORK, March 26.—R. G. Dun & Company's review of trade says: With unusually conflicting signs the confidence which prevails in business circles is still unabated. Prices of commodities as a whole have declined three-fourths of 1 per cent. during the week, and are now 18 per cent. lower than a year ago at this time.

At Boston bad weather affects the dry goods trade, which is yet quite satisfactory. Cotton machinery is well employed, the boot and shoe factories busy with a large number of buyers in the market, rubber goods very active with works employed overtime, and sales of wool fair in amount though the market favors buyers. At Bridgeport hardware is flourishing, the output of rubber goods light, and trade in corsets, brassware and building materials active. At Hartford the wool trade is fair, hardware quiet, and there is no improvement in groceries or dry goods.

At Philadelphia sales of dry goods are smaller than late, though equal to last year's, wool very quiet, trade in chemicals steady and in oils fairly active, but other trades are quiet, with plateglass extremely low in price. At Baltimore manufacturers of cotton duck and architectural iron are busy with abundance of orders. At Cincinnati machinery is brisk, surpassing the trade of former years, and retail businesses brighter. At Cleveland rolling mills are full of work, though at prices 10 to 15 per cent. lower than ever before, business in dry goods and hardware is good, and in other branches fair. At Detroit trade is equal to last year's, but has no snap.

At Chicago increase is seen in receipts of breadstuffs, dressed beef, cheese and butter, but decrease in provisions, cattle, hides and wool. Merchandise sales are equal to last year's. Unfavorable weather affects spring trade at Milwaukee, and seriously hampers trade at St. Louis, though the feeling is hopeful. At Minneapolis trade is good, though hour is very dull, and at St. Paul business is brisk, at Omaha very active, and at Kansas City improving in retail business, though receipts of cattle and hogs are light. Improvement is seen at Denver and also at Louisville, but Memphis reports no improvement; Montgomery a moderate trade, and Savannah some decline. At New Orleans business is quiet, though there is a better movement of cotton, and sugar is active.

The iron trade shows a better tone in spite of very low prices. Larger sales of pig are reported since the recent decline, and there is less pressure to sell, bessemer iron being steady at $14.50 at Pittsburg. Structural iron is fairly active with better prospects, bar iron is more active and there is improved demand for plates. The stronger market for copper here and abroad is counted proof that a combination has been formed.

Tin is stronger, and lead fairly active at 4.15 cents. The coal trade is hesitating, much affected by doubt whether the New Jersey bill, legalizing the combination, will be signed by the governor. The woolen manufacture is doing unusually well for the season though very low prices and sharp foreign competition in some branches are seriously felt. The cheapness of cotton helps the manufacture the more because the demand fairly sustains the price of goods.

But for the uncertainty how far foreign relations will affect money and business here, the general confidence in the future of trade would seem to be justified.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to R. G. Dun & Company by the telegraph, number for the United States 200 and for Canada 31, or a total of .31 as compared with totals of 249 last week, and 256 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 256, representing 228 failures in the United States and 28 in the Dominion of Canada.

ARSON, MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Terrible Crimes Committed by a Railroad Employee.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—August Arndt, a railroad employee here, committed suicide Thursday under sensational circumstances. Late Wednesday, he returned home and began abusing his wife. Mrs. Arndt left the house, and with her children went to the residence of a Mrs. Hammock, a neighbor. At 3 o'clock Thursday morning the Hammock house was discovered to be on fire and the inmates escaped with difficulty.

Mrs. Arndt then went to the house of a man named Strobeck, followed by her husband. Arndt commanded his wife to leave the Strobeck house, and upon her refusal he shot her in the shoulder, inflicting a dangerous wound. He then shot at his own child, and, supposing he had killed both, he shot himself in the temple and died instantly. Mrs. Arndt says that it was her husband who started the numerous incendiary fires which have occurred here this winter.

One Man Burned to Death.

CLOQUET, Minn., March 26.—A great fire swept Dunlap's island Thursday afternoon, destroying seven buildings valued at $25,000. The buildings burned were stores, dwellings and the village jail. Insurance, 16,000. Patrick Flaherty, asleep on the second floor of one of the houses, was burned to death. One of the heaviest losers is the Miller Brewing company, of Milwaukee.

Will Reduce Wages.

WARREN, O., March 26.—Notice will be posted by the blast furnace operators of the Mahoning and Ohio valleys next week that after April 10 there will be a reduction of 10 per cent. in wages of all workmen. The operators claim, by reason of the stagnation of the iron trade. If the men refuse to accept the reduction the furnaces will be banked up.

Ohio Republican Convention.

COLUMBUS, O., March 26.—The Republican state central committee last night fixed Cleveland, April 27 and 28 as the date for the Republican state convention. Hon. Charles P. Griffin, of Toledo, was chosen for temporary chairman of the convention.

Reducing Passenger Rates.

BOSTON, March 26.—A new schedule of second class western passenger rates has been issued by the Boston and Maine railroad. The fare to San Francisco has been placed at $34.75, which is $3 below the rate of the Boston and Albany road.

SENATOR-ELECT MILLS says the Silver bill has been killed, for this session of Congress. Mr. Mills is not going to do any mourning for Bland's pet.

EX-SENATOR INGALLS thinks Cleveland is the only one Democrats can hope to elect, and he further believes that the ex-President will be the nominee of the Chicago convention.

THE free coinage crowd got a paralyzing blow when the motion to lay their bill on the table lacked only one vote of being adopted. That ought to put Bland's pet to rest for a long time, but we fear it will not.

BULKELEY, the Republican holdover, is filling the office of Governor of Connecticut, although no vote was cast for him in the last election. No doubt, Thayer, the Republican usurper of Nebraska, thinks it strange that he can't hold on to the Governorship of that State.

KENTUCKY Republicans are becoming too obstreperous, entirely. It seems they can't hold a convention any more—there's an exception now and then—but without one is reminded of the remark of the parrot after the monkey got through with him. Down at Covington Thursday night the warring factions came together, and there's no telling what would have happened if the police hadn't been called in to quell the row. The scenes enacted were worse than the doings of the late Lexington convention.

NEW YORK Democrats show a commendable spirit of fairness in the Congressional Reapportionment bill now pending in the Legislature. Seventeen of the districts will be Democratic and fourteen Republican, the remaining three being doubtful. This bill meets with Governor Flower's approval. The spirit displayed is in strong contrast with that manifested by the Republicans of Ohio, who are trying to slice up the Buckeye State so as to give themselves all the districts except seven or eight.

LAST fall the BULLETIN pointed out the important figure Kansas, Nebraska and Minnesota would cut in the approaching Presidential election, if the Democrats and Farmers' Alliance of those States took a notion to join forces. It seems now that that is just what they intend doing. In fact an agreement has already been reached in Kansas, and the basis of a fusion is about perfected in Minnesota. There is no question that if the Democrats and Farmers' Alliance will get together they can knock out the Republicans in each of the States named, by about 50,000 majority. No wonder the Republican leaders are becoming uneasy at the news from the West.

THE election in Rhode Island will take place April 7. The State has never yet been carried by Democrats in a Presidential year, but the belief is growing that the people will throw off the Republican yoke next Thursday week. At any rate the G. O. P. leaders are scared up. They are afraid that a Democratic victory in "Little Rhody" now will be followed by a Democratic victory all along the line next November. The National Committee has taken a hand in the fight, and the usual Republican methods will no doubt be resorted to. In the meantime the Democrats are not idle. The closing days of the campaign will probably be the liveliest ever experienced in that State, as Senator Palmer of Illinois, Governor Abbott of New Jersey, Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania, Speaker Crisp of Georgia, Senator Mills of Texas, Congressman McMillin of Tennessee, Kentucky's own Siver-Tongued Breckinridge, Congressman Wilson of West Virginia and others have signified their willingness to go up and aid in the fight. What an array of Democratic orators! May the cause of the people triumph! A victory now in Rhode Island on tariff reform and anti-free coinage platform will bring out every rooster in the land and take a good many feathers out of the Republican eagle.

Breckinridge Explains How Cleveland Can Win.

"With Cleveland, we can carry Massachusetts, with 15 electoral votes; Connecticut, with 6; Rhode Island, with 4; New Hampshire, with 4; New Jersey, with 10; Indiana, with 15; Wisconsin, with 12; Iowa, with 13; Montana with 3; and six votes from Michigan, which, with 124 votes from the solid South, will give him a total of 247 electoral votes, or 24 more than will be necessary to elect him. Besides, we shall probably carry Illinois, with 24 votes, although we shall not need them. The People's party will probably carry Nebraska, Kansas and Minnesota, with a total of 27 electoral votes, leaving the Republican candidate with only 170 votes out of a total of 444."

REV. HENRY M. Woods, long a missionary to China, delivered an interesting discourse last evening at the Central Presbyterian Church on his work in that land. During his talk he spoke of Dr. John Kerr, a former citizen of Maysville, who went to China about forty years ago and who is still there ministering to the people. Dr. Kerr was born in Aberdeen, and studied medicine under Drs. Sharpe & Duke in this city.

WHEN a C. and O. eastbound freight train reached Augusta one night this week the crew discovered that they had some "live stock" on board not included in their bills. The door of one of the cars was found open. As the Conductor and his assistants approached, the "cattle" made a break and out came three tramps who effected their escape in the darkness. No further examination was made then, but on reaching Vanceburg about daylight next morning, the Conductor started to the car, when out jumped two more tramps. One of them was captured by the trainmen and the other was run down by the Vanceburg officers later in the day. The thieves had opened a barrel of whisky in the car and tried to transfer its contents to their own "tanks". Other goods were stolen but the amount is not learned.

It is now thought Pressell was murdered and his body then placed on the rails to conceal the crime. Special officer E. W. Fitzgerald, of the C. and O., has been working on the case. The engineer of the train says the body was stretched square across the track when he struck it.

SAFETY STOVES AND RANGES.

GHASTLY SIGHT.

An Insane Man Saw His Head Off Before a Large Audience.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Henry J. Smith, while in the agonies of delirium tremens, committed suicide Friday in a most revolting manner. He was so violent Thursday night, that it was found necessary to strap him to his bed.

While unguarded, however, he succeeded in breaking his bonds and making his escape to the street. He snatched a knife from a neighboring fish stand, and, pursued by the fishmonger ran in a vacant lot where, with his brandished knife, he held his pursuer at bay. Crowds gathered, but nobody had the hardihood to attempt his capture.

While the multitude were suggesting at random, plans to overpower the maniac, he suddenly applied the knife to his throat, and with measured movement, sawed the edge of the dull knife across his throat. Then the most ghastly scene ensued. While the blood spouted forth in jets from the severed arteries the demented suicide continued his measured sawing, the sound of the severing arteries and cartilages causing even the strongest nerved spectators to shudder.

Finally the suicide fell to the ground face downward. He writhed in dying agonies for a few moments, baring his face in the sand stained with life's blood, and at last became rigid in death. He had almost severed his head from the body, the ghastly wound, a most filled with the sand and clotted blood, presenting a sickening spectacle.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The Silver Bill Out of the Way, but Little Interest Taken.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—There were many corrections to be made in the journal and record when the house met yesterday, members rising for that purpose.

Mr. Reed, of Maine, naively remarked that he was glad to observe that the multitude of errors which had occurred in this congress was not an evidence of moral obliquity, as it had been in previous congresses.

The speaker said what appeared to be a multiplicity of errors was occasioned by a single mistake of the printing office in putting over the list of those who voted "nay" the words "not voting."

A resolution was passed providing for an investigation of the recent fire in the folding room by the committee on public buildings and grounds.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the private calendar.

It seems to be understood that a rule will be reported by the committee on rules to take up the silver bill early next week. Mr. Catchings returned yesterday. Mr. Tracey, one of the leading anti-silver men, has requested a hearing before the committee on rules in regard to what motions may be made when the bill is again brought before the house. The Republicans will vote with the anti-silver men, and have reaped all the party advantages they expected in the fracas Thursday night. The Republican leaders have so informed Mr. Tracey.

MURDERED BY HIS OWN MEN.

Sensational Disclosures on the Seward County Killing.

GARDEN CITY, Kan., March 26.—Recent information indicates that Sheriff Dunn, of Seward county, was not murdered by a mob organized to kill Judge Botkin, as was reported, and as Botkin believed, but that he was murdered by his own dependents and for money and notes he possessed. This information was given out here by W. B. Orner, of Seward county, who was accused of being the principal conspirator to assassinate the judge.

The evidence he has is the testimony of a woman who was an intimate friend of Sheriff Dunn and who knows better than any one else of his finances. The county is so sparsely settled that everybody is acquainted with the murderer, and it is feared a jury can not be impaneled. All those that Botkin had arrested have been released because of the law which does not allow the state to take charge of venue.

Sun-Do-Move Jasper Wedded.

RICHMOND, March 26.—That portion of this city known as Africa was in a whirl Thursday night over the marriage of the Rev. John Jasper, of this city, the author of "The Sun Do Move" theory, and Widow Cary, of his flock. She is his fourth wife. Jasper is eighty years old and his bride is fifty-eight. The bride has one child and three grandchildren. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride, 102 West Hill street, in the northern suburbs of the city. Mr. Jasper is pastor of the Sixth Mount Zion Baptist church. There was some surprise that the ceremony did not take place in the church. The reason was that the octogenarian feared the rabble.

Counterfeitors Captured.

NEVADA, Mo., March 26.—While pretending to raid a crap game over the storehouse of C. S. Tonilson, on the public square of this city, yesterday, Deputy United States Marshal Siddle and assistants arrested counterfeitors John McCullen, John Bedford, colored, and Dick Osborne in their den, and seized the molds and some hundred counterfeit dollars. The counterfeits bear a remarkable likeness to the genuine coin, and southwest Missouri is flooded with them, the business men and bankers, too, being deceived. The ringleaders of the gang escaped; but it is thought will be captured soon.

More Destructive Than First Reported.

AMSTERDAM, March 26.—The loss of life by the drug store explosion of Tuesday night was greater than supposed. The bodies of eight persons have been found in the ruins, and others are missing. Several of the injured have died, including Herr Hancupon, the druggist in whose shop the barrel of benzine exploded, and his wife, aged eighty-three years.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Mr. Hyman Israel, the owner of the property of which the Hotel Royal stood at Forty-second street and Sixth avenue, has made arrangements to build a combination hotel and theater on the ruins.
